

2010 SBA AWARDS PROGRAM
WOMEN IN BUSINESS CHAMPION AWARD
2010 CRITERIA & CHECKLIST

SBA will make the award to eligible small businesses on the district level, the state level (from each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands and Guam), the regional level and the national level. The National winners will be selected from the Regional winners.

Who is eligible to be nominated for this award?

Individuals who have fulfilled a commitment to the advancement of women's business ownership may be nominated. Nominees may or may not be small business owners.

What are the evaluation/selection criteria for this award?

Women in Business Champion of the Year

1. Active support for legislative or regulatory action designed to help small businesses.
2. Efforts to increase business and financial opportunities for women.
3. Legal, financial or managerial assistance provided to enhance women's business ownership.
4. Voluntary efforts to strengthen the role of women business owners within the community.
5. Advocacy of the women-owned business community as a whole, not solely for individual advancement.
6. Other accomplishments demonstrating effectiveness in improving the environment for the creation and expansion of businesses owned and operated by women.

Who may submit nominations for this award?

Any individual or organization dedicated to the support of the small business community in the United States, including, but not limited to, trade and professional associations and business organizations, may submit nominations. Individuals may not be nominated for more than one award category.

Where are the nominations to be sent?

Nominations must be submitted to the U.S. Small Business Administration
Alaska District Office
ATTN: Sam Dickey/SBW 2010
510 L St., Suite 310
Anchorage AK 99501-1952

What is the deadline for nominations?

All nomination packages must be postmarked or hand delivered to the SBA Alaska District office no later than November 13, 2009.

What are the selection procedures for these awards?

Small Business Champion Award winners will be selected at the district (in multi-district states), state and national levels. Winners at each level are selected by a panel of judges. Winners at each level will be considered for awards at the next highest level. Nomination packages for each state winner will be sent to regional SBA offices and prepared for transmittal to the SBA's Office of Field Operations for review. The National Small Business Awardees will be selected by the SBA Administrator based on the recommendations of the Agency's National Small Business Week panel of judges. The winners will be announced during National Small Business Week in May. Non-federal employees serving as judges must sign a conflict of interest/non-disclosure certification.

All information on this form must be provided and the requested attachments submitted.
Failure to furnish the requested information may disqualify the candidate.
